Bachelor of Early Childhood Studies -
“Bruce Anthony Fanning Memorial Bursary”
2010-2011 Bursary Application Information

The Charles Sturt University Early Childhood Studies - “Bruce Anthony Fanning Memorial Bursary” is awarded to students registered in their first year of the CSU Bachelor of Early Childhood Studies Program who have demonstrated academic excellence. The total amount of the bursary is $5,000 each semester. This amount is divided into three awards each semester as follows:

Two awards of $2,000 for two students enrolled full time

One award of $1,000 for one student enrolled part time

These three awards totalling $5,000 are granted in the fall term and again in the winter term for students enrolled in their first two semesters of the CSU Bachelor of Early Childhood Studies Program. Although not impossible, it would be an exceptional situation for the same individual to receive the award both semesters of their first year in the Program.

All bursary applications will be reviewed by the Bursary Committee and will NOT be processed without the following documentation:

- Academic transcripts of the Early Childhood Diploma Program (as well as 1st term transcripts of the CSU Bachelor of Early Childhood Studies Program (if applicable).
- Resume, Curriculum Vitae, or Professional Experience Portfolio
- Completed application form, including the names of 2 references (please include names and addresses below). These references should be individuals who are familiar with and able to describe your interactions with children, families and colleagues.
